CHAPTER 339

AN ACT to amend 189.29 (1) and (2) (intro. par.) of the statutes, relating to fees for dealers and issuance of securities, and increasing state revenues by $7,500 annually.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

189.29 (1) and (2) (intro. par.) of the statutes are amended to read:

189.29 (1) The department shall collect, as a filing fee, $25 for each application for a dealer's license, * * * $5 for each application for an agent's license, and $10 for each application for a license under s. 189.28.

(2) (intro. par.) The department shall collect, as a filing fee, for each application for registration under s. 189.13, a fee of * * * $25 plus 50 cents per thousand for each $1,000 par value of the entire authorized issue of securities for which registration of all or part is sought, but in no case shall the filing fee be more than * * * $160 for each such issue except that:
